

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONAL INVESTOR SERIES 2025

NAVIGATING THE NEXT CYCLE: ALLOCATING CAPITAL IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

A world facing rapid technological innovation, rising geopolitical risks, and dynamic capital flows, this demands sharper foresight from investors.

IIIS 2025 will bring together global experts and local leaders to address critical issues including geopolitical instability and investing strategies, demographic transition and revolutionary impacts of AI on global and ASEAN finance and markets.

This event offers a unique platform for asset managers, international funds and policy makers to explore opportunities, manage risks and create resilient, forward-looking portfolios.
